| Accel Equity | 07-7-2025

WHEN TO AVOID LONDON SESSION?

1. After a large range day greater than 2 times the 5 Day ADR
2. After a 3 consecutive days up closes/ down closes avoid long or short trades
3. After FOMC event that produces extreme Whipsaw
4. Ahead of Non-Farm payroll numbers
5. The same day Trading is heading into a long weekend holiday
6. Multiple high to medium impact news drivers for the particular market
7. An absence of any news during London can be a wildcard day

WHAT CHARACTERISTICS AM LOOKING FOR?

1. CBDR is greater than 50pips (Possibly pass on London)
2. The Asian Range Is greater than 40pips (consider delay protraction)
3. The market starts a sustained rally or decline from 8:00pm New York poor for London session
4. If CBDR and Asian Session is not visually consolidating.....Avoid London
5. We aim for days when the Banks will hold the market to build open float.
6. If market is trending from 8:00pm New York time – London becomes sloppy
7. When market is conditioned for London to slop- sleep in and trade New York
8. Accumulation -Manipulation-Distribution is the business intraday

WHEN LONDON SESSION OPEN KILLZONES IDEAL?

1. The daily chart is clearly respecting Pd arrays
2. The market has recently responded off a HTF Pd array & not met an Opposing PD array
3. When the market is poised to trade higher on the daily to premium array- London longs are ideal
4. When the daily range has not recently exceeded its 5day ADR expansion day is due to form
